The Hount Version Landing.

In reference to the order recently issued by the Secretary of the Navy, prohibiting any boats belonging to the Navy landing at Mount Version without paying for each passenger the regular rates of $1 each, it may be said that $3 erms of this amount goes to the Mount Version Association and $5 eems to Captain Blake, of the scamer Corroran, who has by contract the sole right to land a boat at the Mount Version what. The order was issued at the request of the council of the regent and vice-regents of Mount Version, who were compelled during the recent meeting of the council to take such action because they were bound to prover the rights of Captain Blake by the terms of their contract with him. Did they not do so he would have the right to bring suit against the association for not fulfilling its part in the contract, giving him the sole right to land a boat at Mount Version. It is purely a business matter, and no assumption of power on the part of any one connected with Mount Version. The association owns the landing and wharf there, and has the right to exclude all vessels except the Corcoran.

are of the best in the country, notably Miss Grace Borton, who, as Guiterpapin "His Majesty's Safety Pin," adds tresh laurels to her fame. During her brief engagement Miss Burton has made a deep and lasting impression on the public, and has become a great favorite in Washington, as she is whorever she has appeared. Miss Lou Sambral is pocularly attractive, not only in her individual acts, but as the stellar luminary in the hurlesque. The Monumental Quariette are nightly encored again and again for their excellent singing, and Mr. George Hammond makes a decided hit as Deuteye. Misses Virgle Jackson, Skille Porrester, and other favorites contribute to make the entire intertainment one of exceptional excellence. There will be a matine to-day. Athletic Confests-A Benefit.

The Capital Theater will be opened on Saturday in the occasion of a grand testimonial benefit to the four champion athletes, Mesurs. Kelly and the four champion athletos, Messis. Shall a New Building Be Breefed?-Mr. Townshead's Slars-The Debate. When the bill for the erection of a new Congressional Library was before the House yesterday, Mr. Geddes, of Ohio, argued that it was absolutely necessary that suitable accommodation should be provided for the valuable library in the possession of the government, but contended that it would be far more convenient and economical to have the building erected in Judiciary Square, a government reservation in the central portion of the city, than upon the site proposed by the rending bill.

into a self-respecting body like the House with such an institution it ought to be repelled instantly.

Mr. Townshend asserted that he had no charge to make whatever; he had east no imputation whatever on any memier of the House. He then read from the Chicago Tribinace an article charging that there was a real estate ring of Eastern men who owned the property cas of the Capitol and who wished by unload a bad investment upon the governorea. He wished to call attention to the cleanmeaner that no man who had championed the bill had come from the South or West, and there was no charge that southern or Western men owned an in-h of real estate which they sought to unload on the covernment.

Mr. Rice—The gentleman's last remark shows not only an anima but an Ignorance that is astonishing in regard to the matter upon which he has made such scious charges.

Mr. Townshend—I have made no charge.

Mr. Rice, in reply to Mr. Townshend's remark that no Southern or Western man favored the bill, stated that two of its most earnest a twoates were Senators Voortiees, offindiana, and Butler, of South Carolina. If Mr. Gibson, of Louisiana, were present, he would be found championing the bill. He desired to repel the intimation that Eastern men had been influenced in this nature by any such influence as was alleged by the gentleman from Illinois.

Mr. Humphrey, a member of the committee

such influence as was alleged by the gentleman from Illinois.

Mr. Humphrey, a member of the committee which reported the bill, denied vigorously that the committee had ever heard of any lobbying, and he hoped that no member would ever again stand on this floor and repeat from any newscaper whatever that there was a job in any neritorious measure, without bringing poof of the statement. It was not worthy of a man. The time had come when Congress should not remain silent on a matter of this kind.

After further and at times aerimonious discussion, Mr. Rice moved by postpone the fur her consideration of the bill until the 12th of December, 1882. Pending which, Mr. Randall, moved to lay the bill on the table. Lost—yeas, 72; mays, 114.

Mr. Rice's motion was then agreed to without division.

The Cranks and Guiteau.

The President has received one or two stray letters asking for executive clemency on behalf of Guiteau, but so far has heard nothing from his counsel or any of the members of his family. The letters already received are of the character de-nominated as "cranky," of which the President nominated as "cranky," of which the President receives a large number on all subjects, and, as such, do not come in for serious attention. Miss Chevatiller, of Ibaton, secretary of the National Society for the Protection of the Insane, had a short interview with the President Tuesday in reference to Guiteau's case and arranged for an audience with the President to-day, when Dr. Goorge M. Ibard and others will advance arguments in favor of a short respite for Guiteau, in order to allow a proper commission an opportunity to fully investigate the question of his insanity. samity.

An Undertaker's Row. There was an interesting case in the police court yesterday, Christopher Day being charged by Ed-ward Nelson with the larceny of an ice-box. Both are colored undertakers, and both were employed to bury a lady of their own color; the former being engaged by the son of the decreased, and the latter by a society to which she belonged. Day, who was first on the ground, packed the dead woman comfortably in his own fee box and left. Nelson came and brough his cooling apparatus, to which he transferred the stiff, throwing Pay's box out in the yard. Day, when he returned, found himself supplanted, and as he could not get any money for what he had done, took Nelson's box as security and left. The prosecuting attorney remarked that Mr. Day was justifiable in what he did, and he wondered he had not taken body and all, if he wanted it. The case was dismissed. are colored undertakers, and both were employed

THE ALMSHOUSE FOOD.

What a Member of a Former Grand Jury

Says of it.

Talking with one of the grand jury prior to the present body yesterday, a Republican reporter montioned the strictures that had recently been made on the food at the jall, and asked what had been the result of the examination the grand jury of which he was a member had made. "Well, repfied the, "We found the food at the jall all right in every respect; the bread as good as I u.e on my own table; the coffies a fair average article, and in short every article of food of good catable quality.
But after we had finished our examination of the jall we went to the almshouse, and there we were shocked. The bread, made by a bazer in the institution, was of munty flour and so soggy that it was not fit to eat. The coff e and other things were equally bad. Now I think," continued he,
"that there may be some excuse for inferior food
in a jail, where the inmates are crioninals, and are contined for punishment, but it is wrong
and wicked to leat the poor unfortunates who are compelled to seek the shelter of an almsbouse, out of the meagre allowances which they can have at the best on account of the appropriations. We was ted the court to take notice of the insufficient and villations food at the almshouse, but he decided that he had no power to set, and so we made no mention of the insufficient and villations food at the almshouse quite sharply."

The gentieman is an intelligent medical man, abundantly competent to judge of the character
of strictes of food, and appeared to feel indiguant
that the paper poor were so filly treated.

Table Linen, Towels, Napkins, and Doylies In a variety second to none in the country. We guarantee you a saving of 33 per cent, by buy ing of us.

Men's and Boys' Unlaundried Shirts. Hoys' Shirts, formerly 75 cents, now 50 cents, Men's Shirts, formerly 75 cents, now 50 cents, Men's Shirts, formerly 81 cents, now 60 cents. Men's Shirts, formerly $1, now 60 cents.

This may appear but a small reduction, but as then are all standard goods, with beat 1800 Linen Basons reinforced, we can youch for good BARGAINS. WE HAVE 2,000 OF THOSE LINEN COLLARS left, which made such a furore for the last twelve months, at 5 cents, but, as most of them are slightly soiled, we have reduced them to 2 cents. They must be soid.

Do not consider this idle talk. Every hady in Washington knows the magnitude of our stock, which, we can safely state, is the 2 times as large as the stock of any other merchant in this city. Therefore, prepare for isargains, as by the time we move into our NEW HOUSE we expect to reduce the stock to the smallest in the city. The goods are all fresh, having sent all our old trash to New York auction to be said to the highest bidder. Call early in the morning to avoid the immense rush.
